9:00 – 10:00 Mental Health & Addictions and the Impacts of Being Homeless

Cst Aly Smith & Alana Abramson

Description to follow

10:00 – 10:15 Coffee Break

10:15 – 12:00 Provincial Overdose Mobile Response Team (MRT) – Responding to Responders

Members of the Provincial Overdose Mobile Response Team (MRT) will introduce their mandate and reasons why it is critical to dedicate effort and passion to the health and wellness of our provincial First Responders, Frontline workers and people with lived experience. Mental health and addiction impacts everyone in every community. A look at what is being done and what can be done will be discussed.

12:00 – 13:00 Lunch

13:00 – 14:00 Active Deadly Threats

Sergeant Brent Derksen: - Vancouver Police Department

Sgt Derksen will present a video that intends to visit the topic of preparing for the unlikely event of an Active Deadly Threat in whatever venue you find yourselves in. It was created to give organizations and individuals easily adaptable response options based on the widely-held “common sense” considerations of either running or escaping, hiding or defending yourself in the event of this type of threat.

14:00 – 14:30 Emergency Preparedness for Fast Moving Events

Sup. Rod Tulett: Security & Emergency Management – Metro Vancouver Regional District

This presentation will focus on emergency preparedness for fast moving events, such as wildfires and floods. Emphasis on what should be done if you are ordered to evacuate, to both protect and secure your home during an evacuation.

14:30 – 16:00 Being Prepared to Respond and Recover from Critical Incidents

Karen Collins: Emergency Preparedness Coordinator – Vancouver Police Department

Mrs Collins will discuss the importance and need for all cities - regardless of their size, to be prepared to respond and recover from critical incidents and all hazards of emergencies. Communities need to prepare and develop integrated response plans and exercises that consider the threats and risks facing communities,
